About the Program

The Feets of Magic Camps provides entertaining and comfortable surroundings while maintaining an element of safety during the continual day-to-day happening. Campers receive a great deal of individual attention during the week, much in part to the low average ratio of campers to staff. Raffi Ruotolo, Brian Quinn, and many more, compliment the knowledgeable and informative staff of our camps.

WORD FROM THE DIRECTORS

Growing up and playing professional soccer in Italy and Ireland, we have been exposed to great teaching and coaching development in countries whose soccer system has produced world champions. As a result of this, plus our experiences in playing and coaching in the U.S., we bring with us a knowledge, passion and enthusiasm for teaching, training and coaching all age levels and groups. The main goal of our camps is to provide the finest in soccer instruction and expose you to all the discipline necessary to improve your soccer skill. Our philosophy of the camp is to produce not only great soccer players, but great players of life. We not only want to develop a first class player, but also a first class person.
